DETAILED ACTION

On December 12, 2006, an Office Action was sent to the Applicant rejecting claims 1-65. On March 31, 2007, the Applicant responded with arguments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Power (6,438,527) in view of Wilz (6,510,997), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 31, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argued that none of the prior art references teaches a sensing device, which senses coded data on a printed and uses this sensed coded data to generate indicating data regarding the position of the sensing device relative to the form. In response, Poward discloses a sensing device, which senses coded data on a printed and uses this sensed coded data to generate indicating data regarding the position of the sensing device relative to the form. Once the scanner (sensing device) is in place (senses bar coded data to be read), the coded data is scanned and the information is transmitted to a processor built into the reader or a personal computer.

In response, to the Applicant's argument that there is no motivation to combine the Powar and Wilz, the Examiner recognizes that references cannot be arbitrarily combined and that there must be some reason why one skilled in the art would be motivated to make the proposed combination of the primary and secondary references. In re Nomiya, 184 USPQ 607 (CCPA 1975). However, there is no requirement that a motivation to make the modification be expressly articulated. The test for combining references is what the combination of disclosures taken as a whole would suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art. In re McLaughlin, 170 USPQ 209 (SSPA 1971).

References are evaluate by they suggest to one versed in the art, rather than by their specific disclosures. In re Bozek, 163 USPQ 545 (CCPA) 1969. In this case, Powar discloses that the scanned information may be transmitted to a personal computer or process built into the reader, but does not disclose providing print data to a printer and is silent with regard to the Internet. Wilz teaches a scanning device that may integrated with the Internet, and the information may be provided to a printer. Thus, the Examiner found motivation to combine both references, since both references provide scanning devices for reading coded data.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
